How it Works

After a conversation about your needs and desires, we build your site with your company branding

Employees order from the site and pay for the order

We produce the order and ship it directly to the employee

What You Do

Approve the webstore and the items in it

Promote the store by telling your employees about it

You can give Gift Cards to your store (any dollar amount or quantity you choose) as Incentives or prizes, for on-boarding new employees, as gifts for your employees or clients, for employee recognition, as safety program incentives, etc. It helps promote your store, and you only pay for what they redeem!
